

The Villa Life

Go on an exclusive private getaway with family and friends in one of Bohol's best kept secrets

First of all, we need to define what a villa is. The word often gets thrown around that it loses its true meaning. While many resorts offer a 'villa type accommodation', the truth is very far from it. A villa, in its strictest sense, is a country estate — a home away from home where one can enjoy complete exclusivity and intimacy, minus the usual resort crowds. It's all about getting that personalized pampering and privacy without sharing the experience with strangers. At Pure Shores Villa, you get exactly that.

Pure Shores Villa in Bohol is a fully-serviced, five-bedroom luxury villa located on gorgeous Bohol island. It is strategically located on a cliff top, overlooking the ocean with majestic sunset views you won't find elsewhere. All five bedrooms are fully air-conditioned, with their own ensuite bathroom and private balcony. There's also a common lounge area, a TV area, and a pool cabana with day beds, perfect for hosting Al fresco dining under the stars with a choice of meals from the sumptuous à la carte International menu or a boodle fight — a Filipino favorite of having food laid out on banana leaves for everyone to partake (talk to the chef or staff, they'd be happy to prepare a customized dining experience for you!).

Just below the Villa through a private access is a great snorkelling spot, a protected marine sanctuary with lots of varieties of fish, beautiful corals, and giant clams. If you're lucky, you may see a green sea turtle or two glide past you. What's more, further out is Anda Reef, about 14 kilometers of reef with 20 dive sites. "It's one of the few places in the region where you can do macro diving," says owner Dean Elder. Pure Shores Villa can organize excursions and diving trips.

With its tried and tested promise of an exclusive private getaway, it's no surprise that Pure Shores Villa has become a favorite venue for events like destination weddings. Guests cannot get enough of this piece of paradise, and the staff make sure they only get the best experience. "We've had weddings, proposals, a 90th birthday, and this year our 'first conception' you could say, Made in Pure Shores'," continues Dean laughing. "We have people coming back to us saying it's the most amazing experience they've had, especially spending quality time with loved ones uninterrupted from everyday life. Being part of that and creating lasting lifetime memories for them, it's priceless!" ■
